INTERIOR DESIGN

Hello Gorgeous!

First French food, now the French kitchen ~ reinvented.

Vaughan, ON – A re-imagined French style kitchen hit the mark at the National Kitchen and Bath Awards, NKBA, in Vaughan this past weekend. Winning the coveted People's Choice Award, Jane Lockhart Interior Design's retake on kitchen design "En Français" caught the imagination of the voting public!

Painted turquoise blue cabinets, a hand painted back splash, tumbled travertine stone flooring and colourful furniture paint the scene to somewhere far away. This main floor renovation is an ode to the sun-filled country spaces of southern France combined with the personal flavour of the homeowners.

Lockhart's entire team participated in the realization of the space from working drawings for the entire main floor renovation to the kitchen planning, colour choices, material selection and even the room styling.

"We are thrilled to have won this honour," Lockhart notes. "It demonstrates how much people love colour and traditional style. And it shows how important it is for a homeowner to really connect with their space, as home is our happy place."

The kitchen was also awarded Third Place for Best Overall Large Kitchen Design and won top honours for Best Traditional Kitchen.

The NKBA was founded in Philadelphia in 1963 and has more than 60,000 members across North America including designers, suppliers and manufacturers. This is the 13th year for the annual awards gala.
